(b) NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

Dr. Pushpa Sinha, Department of Economics and Dr. Punam Kumari, Department of Home Science are the Programme Officers, NSS, Patna Women's College Units.

A State-wide campaign to promote early initiation and exclusive breast feeding was launched, in collaboration with UNICEF, on 3rd August, during the Breast Feeding Week (1st – 7th August), 2008.

Unveiling the campaign, Bihar Chief Minister, Shri Nitish Kumar said "This campaign will not be a mere ritual, but will start from State level and go down to grass roots level." UNICEF Deputy Country Representative Kunihiko Chris Hirabayashi emphasized that 25% of all infant deaths across the world occur in India, the country accounts for the single highest share globally.

According to the Government of Bihar's Coverage Evaluation Survey 2008, only 17% new born babies in Bihar received breast milk within an hour of their birth. And this is mainly due to very low female literacy rate in the State and rampant myths and misconceptions.

Highlighting on the importance of breast feeding, the volunteers were informed that, breast milk stimulates the immune system of babies, contains hundreds of life enhancing molecules etc.

The objective of the breast feeding promotion campaign was, to increase the percentage of women practising early initiation of breast feeding to 60% and exclusive breast feeding to 40% by the end of year 2009.

The function was attended by the two Programme Officers Dr. Punam Kumari and Dr. Pushpa Sinha and fifty NSS volunteers of Patna Women's College Unit.

An orientation programme for NSS volunteers was held on 5th August, 2008 in the Stage Hall. Dr. Sister Doris D'Souza A.C., Principal, Patna Women's College, addressed the NSS volunteers. In her encouraging message, she reminded them of their responsibilities towards the society. She asked them to live up to the motto of NSS. She also emphasized, that they should practice regular meditation for enhancing their concentration. The programme officers, Dr. Pushpa Sinha and Dr. Punam Kumari, also encouraged the volunteers on the occasion.

On the occasion of Independence Day, a function was organized at Patna College and the NSS volunteers took active part.

The function started with flag hoisting by the Vice Chancellor, Prof. Shyam Lal, Patna University. It was followed by march past by NSS and NCC volunteers. There were few cultural dances and songs, presented by students of Patna University. The function ended with a procession, presenting seven warriors of Bihar, as a tribute to them by NSS, Patna University Unit.

An Orientation Programme was held on 30th August, 2008. The NSS Coordinator, Patna University, Dr. Rabindra Kumar addressed the students. Emphasising on the motto of NSS "NOT ME BUT YOU", Dr. Rabindra Kumar, said that NSS volunteers shall strive for the well being of the society. Through his address, the Coordinator gave information about the Symbol, Badge, Programmes, Activities and Coverage Areas of NSS. He also said that NSS volunteers get weightage in getting admission in various renowned universities and in getting jobs.

The programme officers Dr. Punam Kumari and Dr. Pushpa Sinha were also present on the occasion.

Enrollment Function of NSS Patna Women's College Unit was held on 1st September, 2008, and 70 volunteers were enrolled.

The function started with the message by the Principal, Dr. Sister Doris D'Souza A.C. The volunteers were given badges, sashes and work diaries. The volunteers took the pledge to be loyal to their country and work for its growth and development.

The function would have not been successful without the support of the programme officers Dr. Punam Kumari and Dr. Pushpa Sinha.

NSS, Patna Women's College Unit, celebrated World Literacy Day on 8th September, 2008.

In order to bridge the gap between the educated and the uneducated masses NSS volunteers facilitated poor children with essential items such as books, copies, bags, water bottles etc. Games were organized for their entertainment. Around 100 poor children were present on the occasion.

NSS volunteers organised a flood relief donation camp.

In the campaign of 7 days (6th – 12th September, 2008) volunteers set-up a stall in front of our College and collected around Rs. 2,500/- from the common people passing by the College in a day.

Volunteers and programme officers actively took part in the relief work.

On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad, a programme was organised in Gandhi Maidan on 11th and 12th of November, 2008. It was celebrated as 'National Education Day'. The 14 NSS volunteers and 2 Programme Officers participated in the programme. Some of the NSS volunteers also took part in the cultural activities organised there.

An awareness programme was organised on the occasion of World AIDS Day by the Bihar State AIDS Control Society on 1st December, 2008. Health Minister

Mr. Nand Kishore Yadav flagged off a rally of NSS volunteers of Patna University, near Patna Women's College gate. The rally witnessed participation of large number of Patna Women's College NSS volunteers. Speaking on the occasion Mr. Yadav underlined the need of spreading awareness about HIV / AIDS. Wearing red ribbon badges NSS volunteers from Patna Women's College also created awareness amongst people urging them to come forward for counselling. On their way to Kargil Chowk, they also distributed AIDS awareness booklets. Around fifty Patna Women's College NSS volunteers took part in the programme. The two Programme Officers Dr. Punam Kumari and Dr. Pushpa Sinha were also present on the occasion.

Q. 36. Activities of the Guidance and Counselling unit.

- Individual counselling is a part especially of the Psychology Department, and also of other departments. The Psychology Department is planning to bring experts (counsellors) to deliver lectures in group counselling and individual counselling. Mentor system is in progress in various departments; it helps in counselling.

Q. 37. Placement services provided to students.

The Placement Cell of PWC, Co-ordinates between the College and the Companies which employ the students. Dr. Debjani Sarkar and Ms. Sahar Rahman are the Placement Officers who shoulder all the responsibilities of recruitment and training in the College. They constantly keep in touch with the reputed companies of the IT and BPO sectors. Campus Recruitments are conducted for the final year students across all streams. Reputed multi-national companies like WIPRO, IBM, TCS, Infosys etc. hold campus drives in PWC.

In the year 2008, also campus recruitment was conducted by the following companies in which students across all streams were selected–

25th November, 2008 – WIPRO BPO, Kolkata — 59 students.

2nd – 3rd December, 2008 – IMB Daksh, Gurgaon — 72 students.

The Placement Cell organized a training programme in the College in collaboration with IBM Daksh, Gurgaon for the students selected by IBM Daksh, Gurgaon.

The Placement Cell of PWC is relentlessly working for the placement of the students in good companies.

Q. 38. Development programmes for non-teaching staff.

- The supporting staff had an Orientation Programme. They are encouraged to attend Computer Literacy Programme. Some of them had attended computer literacy programme.

Q. 39. Innovative practices of the institution.

- General Staff Meetings, Departmental Staff Meetings, Orientation Programme for the teachers.
- A few Departments conduct post entrance tests, oral and written, to assess the aptitude of students.
- Students are encouraged to read novels and journals and are asked to write book reviews every fortnight.
- Leave notes are duly signed by the Heads of the Departments when students absent themselves.
- Regular circulars by the Principal to all the Departments give detailed information about the College functioning to the teachers and students, make the involvement and participation from all the stakeholders very constructive and effective.
- Visiting the bereaved family members of our staff and students.
- Teachers use learner-centred methods for teaching for the students to develop a holistic view of their subjects and also channel their interests beyond their textbooks and syllabi. For this purpose workshops, project work, exhibition, seminars, quizzes are organized in most of the Departments.
- Regular activities pertaining to Environment protection are held. “No to Polythene bags” drive is on in the College.
- Terminal examinations are held, revision classes and tutorial classes are undertaken, assignments are given and extra attention is paid to slow learners in order to reinforce the academic inputs given in classes.
- Almost all Departments have a Departmental Library.
- In many Departments career counselling is given in addition to Campus Recruitment Programme of the University.
- Emphasis is laid on inculcation of moral values in students. For this purpose several strategies are employed, for example, discussion on social, economic and ethical issues, CD presentation of matters related to ethical and moral values, group activities on social issues such as human chain etc. are organized.

- Stress is laid on development of leadership qualities among students. Keeping this in mind, duties and responsibilities are assigned to students in conducting several co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- In order to develop a cordial student-teacher relationship, optimum interaction between students and teachers is encouraged. Most of the Departments conduct Mentor System.
- A great deal of stress is given to co-curricular activities. A zero period is marked on Thursdays (11:55 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.) during which an activity is organized every week. Students are encouraged to take part in University, District, State and National Level Contests and various Youth Festivals in which they regularly give excellent performances.
- There is transparency in admissions. The Principal meets the parents at the time of admission. Candidates are interviewed at the time of entry.
- Orientation is given to students periodically about College rules, Library rules, Terminal and Final Examination.
- Bulletin Board is a part of the Departmental Activity.
- First Aid facilities are available in the College.
- The outgoing batch (B.A. III) of the College is given a farewell combined with a prayer service.
- The Department of Philosophy holds Yoga classes for the students. They have regular Theory and Demonstration classes.
- Many of the Departments promote a sharing attitude by weekly display on different themes on values.
- The Department of IMB has regular appraisal of teachers by regular feedback from students.
- The Department of Communicative English has a suggestion and grievance box.
- The Department of Physics has Physics Teaching through low cost and no cost experiments.
- The Department of Education has daily assembly programmes conducted by the trainees. They also have 'each one teach one' social education, literacy programme.
