The meeting started with a prayer. The points of the agenda were taken up.

It was started by the Chairperson that the admission process for the session 2018-19 will start sometime in June after the results of the Entrance exams are declared. There is need to brief and assist the students regarding the Generic elective courses and their allocation. For this the IQAC members who are available in June will take turns to be there during the admissions.

For the Ability Enhancement Courses in the 1st Semester, preferably the students will be divided equally (i.e 750 & 750) for English and Hindi groups. At the most in one group, the members of students can reach up to 1000, but not more than that.

The IQAC Coordinator discussed the pattern of paper setting for End – Semester exams. (as per CBCS Syllabus)

It was decided that college uniform will be continued for all students (Ist/IIInd/IIIrd yrs). The days for casual dress for these girls will be Saturdays for Ist years, Wednesdays from IIInd year and Thursdays for IIIrd year students respectively.

Dr. Shahla Yasmin mentioned that the students from Science departments will participate in the Quiz Competition on 5th June and Clean India Programme on 23rd or 24th may, to be organized by the Bihar Pollution Control Board.
