27. Automation of the College Central Library and College Office.
28. Regular update of the College Website.
29. Scholarships (founded) will be continued to be given to all the top students on College Day.

OUTCOME ACHIEVED :

- As proposed, we have introduced in earnest BBA, BMC, B.Ed. Courses (all self-financing) and a Foundation Course on “Human Rights and Values in Education” (UGC Sponsored).
- The success of PTA and Alumni Meet primarily depended on each department. Each one of the meetings had a unique approach to make it memorable and significant.
- The College had a National Seminar “Environmental Education For Sustainable Lifestyle” sponsored by UGC, organized by the Department of Zoology in which the entire College worked as one united body.
- Almost all the Departments made laudable efforts in training the students through Departmental seminars, workshops, guest lectures, symposia and exhibitions. Teachers were either Resource Persons or presented papers in the College and at State level or National level programmes. We had a few experts from industries and institutions of National level giving lectures to students and faculty. Our non-teaching Catholic staff had a day of spiritual renewal in the month of April 2006.
- The NCC, NSS, ECO Task Force are actively involved in community services. Their involvement is commendable. The Department of Home Science conducted a training programme on “Working with Community”.
- The Department of Psychology brings in sunshine to the individual students whom they counsel on a regular basis. The English Department conducted an informal career counselling programme for students on request.
- Simplicity coupled with strength of conviction, Patna Women’s College went ahead with the FAEA (Foundation for Academic Excellence and Access) programme for the socially challenged students which of course served as an year of academic spring time for them.
- Campus interviews were held as planned.
- The mentor system has increased faith in the individual student helping each one of them to experience the touch of God’s providential care. Open and free, they are performing better in their studies.
- Talented students were awarded on the Annual Day of the College. Students who were outstanding in sports events received their award on “Sports Day”.

- The Department of Home Science conducted a two day (7-8 Feb., 2006) medical check-up for the entire College. The experts in the field conducted the test on osteoporosis and all were given the Bone Densitometry report.
- The ETF members were actively involved in various programmes to promote Eco-friendliness in the campus.
- The Departmental Libraries with addition of new books are obviously doing a splendid job.
- The Management made great effort to orient the staff with regard to autonomy but the staff is still very apprehensive about its outcome/impact on their service conditions.
- The B. Ed. building given to the College by the Apostolic Carmel is a boon indeed! And, the work on examination hall has just begun.
- The College website is being updated with departmental information.
- The World Literacy Day (8 Sept.) was celebrated by NSS volunteers by holding an interactive session with the socially and economically disadvantaged children and distribution of study materials.
- Scholarships were given to all top students on Annual Day held on 28.01.2006.

3. Cash given for conveyance and other needs when and where needed by the College.

Q. 30. Activities and support from the Alumni Association.

Alumni Meet was organized at the Department level. The Departments invited their alumni and had a festive get together. Patna Women's College has an impressive list of ex-students holding important positions in India and abroad. The following Departments had Alumni Meets during the period : July 2005 to June 2006.

1.	Political Science	28.11.2005
2.	Sociology	06.12.2005
3.	Geography	20.09.2005
4.	Psychology	16.08.2005

Q. 31. Activities and support from the Parent – Teacher Association.

Parents were very appreciative of the “One to One Meet” in the Departments. The College conducted Annual Parents’ Day on 28.01.2006.

Following Departments conducted Parent-Teacher Meet this year:

- Department of English on 6th and 7th February, 2006 for Degree II year students.
- Department of Communicative English with Media Studies on 17th December 2005 for Degree Ist year students.
- Department of Advertising, Sales Promotion and Sales Management on 9th and 10th December 2005 for all the Honours students.
- Department of Zoology on 23rd, 24th and 25th January 2006 for B.Sc., Zoology Honours students.
- Department of Geography on 7th February for all B.A. Geography Honours students.
- Department of Computer Applications on 7th January 2006 for all BCA Honours students.
- Department of Philosophy on 28th February 2006 for all Philosophy Honours students.

The interaction between the parents and teachers of the Departments proved very fruitful. It resulted in forging a better understanding of the students’ needs and background, and has led to the establishment of cordial relation between the two. It has always been a good practice in Patna Women’s College that the Parents meet the Principal at the time of admission of their wards.

Q. 38. Development Programmes for non-teaching staff.

The Computer Literacy Programme which was planned for the non-teaching staff could not be carried out in an organized manner. However, two of the Department of Advertising, Sales Promotion and Sales Management helpers are being computer trained by the Computer Department. The Christian non – teaching staff had a Day of spiritual renewal during Christmas/Easter time.

Q. 39. Healthy practices of the institution.

- The Department of Philosophy holds Yoga classes for the students. They have regular Theory and Demonstration classes.

- NSS, NCC, ECO TASK FORCE – Outreach Programme on Literacy (campus to community) and Environment Awareness programme.
- AICUF – for leadership.
- General Staff Meeting, Departmental Staff Meetings, Orientation Programme for the teachers.
- A few Departments conduct post entrance tests, oral and written, to assess the aptitude of students.
- Students are encouraged to read novels and journals and are asked to write book reviews every fortnight.
- Leave notes are duly signed by the heads of the Departments when students absent themselves.
- Regular circulars by the Principal to all the Departments give detailed information about the College functioning to the teachers and students, make the involvement and participation from all the stakeholders very constructive and effective.
- Visiting the bereaved family members of our staff and students.
- Teachers use learner-centred methods for teaching. Several measures are undertaken to involve the students in the process of learning, so that the students develop a holistic view of their subjects and also channel their interests beyond their textbooks and syllabi. For this purpose workshops, project work, exhibition, seminars, quizzes are organized in most of the Departments.
- Regular activities pertaining to Environment protection are held. “No to Polythene bags” drive is on in the College.
- Terminal examinations are held, revision classes and tutorial classes are undertaken, assignments are given and extra attention is paid to slow learners in order to reinforce the academic inputs given in classes.
- Almost all Departments have a Departmental library, to which students have greater access than the main library. This system is more helpful since the students are in direct guidance of the teachers in selection of books. Usually, a library period is marked on the timetable for students to access the Central Library and the Departmental Library.
- In many Departments career counselling is given in addition to Campus Recruitment Programme of the University.

- Emphasis is laid on inculcation of moral values in students. For this purpose several strategies are employed, for example, discussion on social, economic and ethical issues, CD presentation of matters related to ethical and moral values, group activities on social issues such as human chain etc. are organized.
- Stress is laid on development of leadership qualities among students. Keeping this in mind duties and responsibilities are assigned to students in conducting several co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- In order to develop a cordial student-teacher relationship optimum interaction between students and teachers is encouraged, both inside and outside the classroom. Many Departments have the mentor system under which one teacher is assigned a group of students for guidance and counselling.
- A great deal of stress is given to co-curricular activities. A zero period is marked on Thursdays (11:55 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.) during which an activity is organized every week. Students are encouraged to take part in University, District, State and National Level Contests and various Youth Festivals in which they regularly give excellent performances.
- Computer Literacy Awareness Programme and Spoken English classes have been especially arranged for the socially disadvantaged groups among students.
- There is transparency in admissions. The Principal meets the parents at the time of admission. Candidates are interviewed at the time of entry.
- Orientation is given to students periodically about College rules, Library rules, Terminal and Final Examination.
- Bulletin Board is a part of the Departmental Activity.
- In emergency, doctors are called or the student is taken to nearby hospitals. First Aid facilities are available in the College.
- The outgoing batch (B.A. III) of the College is given a farewell combined with a prayer service.
