Q. 34. Incentives to outstanding sports persons.

On College Sports Day the winners of various events were awarded. Students who participated in the out-stationed events were given T.A., D.A. and uniform.

Q. 35. Student achievements and awards.Achievements and Awards

After the student cabinet is elected, an oath taking ceremony is held which is a solemn occasion as the members pledge to render sincere service to the College. They arrange and conduct the extra-curricular programmes throughout the year. The College prepares special functions to mark the important days on the calendar – the International Women's Day, the Independence Day, the Republic Day, the World Literacy Day, the Human Rights Day etc. These programmes are in the form of cultural items, human chains, slogan writing, poster making or essay contests and attending talks, seminars and workshops in the College and outside.

Q. 36. Activities of the Guidance and Counselling unit.

- Individual counselling is a part of all Departments, especially of the Psychology Department. The Department of Psychology brings experts (counselors) to deliver lectures as a part of group counselling and individual counselling. Each teacher in Psychology is a mentor of 8 – 10 students. There is a steady flow of students to register themselves and avail the benefit of guidance and counselling.

Q. 37. Placement services provided to students.

The Placement Officers Dr. Debjani Sarkar and Dr. Sahar Rahman have selected and trained Placement Cell Representatives (PCRs) from each department to coordinate between the departments and the Cell.

In the year 2010, campus recruitment was conducted by the following companies in which students across all streams were selected –

27th and 28th September, 2010 – IBM Daksh, Gurgaon – 121 students.

1st October and 30th October, 2010 – Wipro BPO, Kolkata – 39 students.

The Placement Cell of Patna Women's College is relentlessly working for the placement of students in good companies. The Cell has contacted media companies to hold Campus Recruitment in 2011.

Q. 38. Development programmes for non-teaching staff.

- The supporting staff had an Orientation Programme. They are encouraged to attend Computer Literacy Programme. Some of them had attended computer literacy programme.

Q. 39. Innovative practices of the institution.

- General Staff Meetings, Departmental Staff Meetings, Orientation Programme for the teachers.
- Teachers start the class with a silent prayer or the class sings the College Anthem.
- A few Departments conduct post entrance tests, oral and written, to assess the aptitude of students.
- Students are encouraged to read novels and journals and are asked to write book reviews every fortnight.
- Leave notes are duly signed by the Heads of the Departments when students absent themselves.
- Regular circulars by the Principal to all the Departments give detailed information about the College functioning to the teachers and students, make the involvement and participation from all the stakeholders very constructive and effective.
- Visiting the bereaved family members of our staff and students.
- Teachers use learner-centred methods for teaching for the students to develop a holistic view of their subjects and also channel their interests beyond their text-books and syllabi. For this purpose workshops, project work, exhibition, seminars, quizzes are organized in most of the Departments.

- Regular activities pertaining to Environment protection are held. “No to Polythene bags” drive is on in the College.
- Terminal examinations are held, revision classes and tutorial classes are undertaken, assignments are given and extra attention is paid to slow learners in order to reinforce the academic inputs given in classes.
- Almost all Departments have a Departmental Library.
- In many Departments career counselling is given in addition to Campus Recruitment Programme of the University.
- Emphasis is laid on inculcation of moral values in students. For this purpose several strategies are employed, for example, discussion on social, economic and ethical issues, CD presentation of matters related to ethical and moral values, group activities on social issues such as human chain etc. are organized.
- Stress is laid on development of leadership qualities among students. Keeping this in mind, duties and responsibilities are assigned to students in conducting several co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- In order to develop a cordial student-teacher relationship, optimum interaction between students and teachers is encouraged. Most of the Departments conduct Mentor System.
- A great deal of stress is given to co-curricular activities. A zero period is marked on Thursdays (11:55 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.) during which an activity is organized every week. Students are encouraged to take part in University, District, State and National Level Contests and various Youth Festivals in which they regularly give excellent performances.
- There is transparency in admissions. The Principal meets the parents at the time of admission. Candidates are interviewed at the time of entry.
- Orientation is given to students periodically about College rules, Library rules, Terminal and Final Examination.
- Bulletin Board is a part of the Departmental Activity.
- First Aid facilities are available in the College.
- The outgoing batch (B.A. III) of the College is given a farewell combined with a prayer service.

- The Department of Philosophy holds Yoga classes for the students. They have regular Theory and Demonstration classes.
- Many of the Departments promote a sharing attitude by weekly display on different themes on values.
- The Department of IMB has regular appraisal of teachers by regular feedback from students.
- The Department of Communicative English has a suggestion and grievance box.
- The Department of Physics has Physics Teaching through low cost and no cost experiments.
